"PIRATES" LOOT WRECKED HELGA

Amateur salvage corps made a considerable haul in their quest for plunder from the wrecked British barkentine Helga yesterday.

Sunday appeared to be an off day with the Miller Salvage Company corps of workers. The steamer James Makoe left the scene of the wreck near Waikiki Saturday night and on the following morning at least a half dozen surf boats with sails hoisted to the breeze paid a successful visit to the wrecked barkentine.

A score or more curiosity seekers and relic hunters swarmed the flooded decks of the vessel. In several instances they succeeded in getting in some articles of value. One crowd of

NO PLACE FOR DICTATOR SAID LANE

Pointed Out That One Man Power Is Not Needed

PLAIN STATEMENT ON DUTY OF REPUBLICANS

Senator Lane, in the presence of the Advertiser and of the Bulletin reporters made the following statement regarding party politics last Saturday.

"If the members of the Republican party would read up on the rules under which the party organization is carried on, those who claim that they cannot vote the straight ticket, after the nominating convention would have no occasion to say that they can not vote the straight ticket.

"Bossism should not and will not be tolerated by the party as the rules do not give any one that right. Anyone vested with party power may try to place himself in a dictatorial position but in this community he cannot last long, as Republicans of this city will not support any such movement of a one-man power.

"The Republican convention in the past has not been a one-man power convention but a convention representing the various precincts.

"If those who talk so much would

Control Wharves Urges Commission

Government Ownership Or Direct Supervision Needed--Kahului Charges Exorbitant

Government ownership of all wharves or direct supervision under an act of the Legislature are the recommendations made by the board appointed by Governor Prosser in its report just submitted to the Chief Executive, to do away "with the intolerable conditions existing at present" in the words of the report.

The report just submitted covers nearly fifty typewritten pages and is profusely illustrated with photographs taken by the members of the commission on their visits to the different landings of the Territory. Each landing is treated in detail and the conditions are all gone into fully. Means of approach, ownership and landing charges of all kinds are discussed.

Kahului landing receives particular attention by the commission, 96,000 tons of outgoing sugar is handled every year per annum and the amount of incoming goods is an amount greater than the outgoing freight.

There is no specific charge for use of the wharf except by Japanese sampans or other boats which are charged one dollar a day. Landing charges here are twenty-five cents per ton with a minimum of ten cents a package. There is a railroad charge from wharf to warehouse, which is always imposed, this being the only means of getting to or from the baggage wharf from wharf to warehouse or any point within the townsite of Kahului or vice versa a charge of one dollar per ton for less than carload lots, and seventy-five cents for carload lots is charged. There is no wagon road connecting with the landing. Deliveries of freight amounting to two tons or less in one shipment by special train are double the above rates.

The final observations and recommendations of the commission follow:

In making an examination of the different landings throughout the Territory, this Commission has found a great diversity in the methods of operation, kind and extent of services rendered the public, difficulty and cost of operation, volume of business, both public and private, amount of assistance furnished by the water carrier in handling freight, amount of assistance furnished to the water carrier by the landing owner and amount of service required by the public and value of service rendered to the public.

The difference of cost to the public for service rendered by the operators of landings is not always to be accounted for by a difference of natural conditions, location, topography and climate, all of which affect the cost, nor by the efficiency of the working plant, or the volume of business handled. Nor, on the other hand, can it be said that the difference is always to be accounted for by the dependence upon certain land-

Griscom Is Dove Of Peace

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Aug. 15.—Chairman Lloyd Griscom of the New York Republican State committee was called on Colonel Roosevelt this forenoon. The political significance of the visit immediately became a subject of the greatest interest, as it is known that the Republican leaders are using their best endeavors to bring about a better state of harmony in the party.

It is generally believed that Mr. Griscom is the bearer of a message from President Taft to Colonel Roosevelt, and that this message is of a nature to promote harmony in the Republican organization.

Repeated reports from Beverly that he President is cutting loose from his hand-picked, indicate that the drift of the administration is toward a more positive alignment with the conservative wing and the Roosevelt

LIQUOR BOARD MEETS TODAY

The liquor commission will hold a regular meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when several matters of importance will come up for consideration.

Among them are the application of Bonouchi for Sunday and after hour privileges, and the recharging of several applications for a license.

It is understood that the matter of a license for the Criterion Saloon in the name of P. Peacock will also be taken up, the reported sale of the Criterion by Charles McCarthy hanging on the action of the board in regard to transferring the license, which was granted early in July.

WIFE MAKES MANY CHARGES

There are twenty-four counts in the libel for divorce filed by Nicoletta Teyon Norgaard against her husband, Dr. Victor A. Norgaard, in which she accuses her spouse of beating and kicking her on many occasions since their marriage in 1895.

Also of kicking their son down the steps in October, 1907, when they lived on Makiki street. This kicking is alleged to have injured the boy's spine to such an extent as to cause total paralysis of his motor nerves.

According to the libel filed, Dr. Norgaard has beaten his wife time and again with his hands, closed fists, buggy whips and black snakes, causing her great mental suffering and physical pain.

The wife also alleges that he has never given her any money, although she receives a salary of $1500 per annum and has investments which bring him in $1000 a year in addition.

Will Consider Andrews' Activity

A special meeting of the Republican Territorial Central Committee will convene at 5 o'clock today and it is understood that the purpose of the meeting is to consider the attempts that are being made by Lorrin Andrews, employed by the committee to organize precinct clubs, to advance the interest of his personal candidates and establish a political machine and dictatorship of his own at the expense of the party.

The flood of protests from active Republicans who have seen the practical effect of Andrews' policies as a "harmonizer" have had their significance fully recognized by the members of the Territorial Central Committee. As a result the meeting for 5 o'clock this afternoon has been called and the activities of Andrews will come up for official consideration. That some positive action will be taken in the interest of Republican harmony seems to be undoubted.

National Committee-man Heinlein has been canvassing the situation carefully since arriving in Honolulu and in common with the other leaders of the party has decided that the time for action has arrived to improve the situation now prevailing.

THETIS MADE READY FOR CRUISE TO BIRD ISLANDS—TAKING COAL AND SUPPLIES

The United States revenue cutter Thetis is making preparations for going to sea, and it is generally understood that her destination will be one of the several "bird islands" lying to the south and westward of Honolulu.

A quantity of coal has been rushed to the Thetis, which now rides at anchor in the stream. The vessel has been undergoing some much-needed repairs to her boilers and machinery. This has prevented her dispatch at an earlier date.

That the Thetis will make a call at Laysan and Lisianski and perhaps other dots now incorporated in the Hawaiian Island bird reservation, is considered a foregone conclusion.

It has been some days since the little island schooner Concord reached Honolulu after a nine-day voyage from Laysan Island, bringing a report of a visitation of a Japanese schooner with some twenty-five or thirty men on board.

That this vessel called at Laysan for the purpose of securing a consignment of bird skins and plumage
